MANY SUITS ARE FILED

AGAINST CROMWELL A. C. A.

Claim Organization Has Failed To Comply With Its Agreement

A surprise was sprung when more than a score of suits were filed Monday, against the Cromwell Branch American Co-operative Association. Plaintiffs claim that agents of this organization, represented to them that the American Co-operative Association has many stores throughout the country, that there was a surplus in the treasury; that it paid an annual dividend of 8 per cent.; that it sold merchandise much cheaper than other stores; that if a store were established at Cromwell, farmers would be able to obtain wagons, binders and other farm machinery and vehicles of standard makes and that many other inducements were offered in order to sell stock in the concern. The stock was sold at $120 per share, which is 20 per cent. above par.

Their plea is that instead of complying with many of these and other promises, the company purchased an old stock of goods from a Cromwell merchant and is selling these, and does not handle farming implements, vehicles, etc. and that it does not pay the dividend promised. Those who have paid money into the concern desire the amounts refunded and their names removed as stockholders. The Cromwell branch is under the management of Mr. R. B. Martin.

The following suits have been filed so far:

Dr. Oscar Allen, vs. A. C. A.; Blain Havens, vs. Same; R. D. Douglas, vs. Same; T. Q. Shields, vs. Same; T. W. Wallace, vs. Same; H. C. Crowder, vs. Same; W. A. Wallace, vs. Same; C. D. Wallace, vs. Same; Jno. Daugherty, vs. Same; J. N. Morris, vs. Same; L. R. Shields, vs. Same; C. V. Porter, vs. Same; A. B. Amos, vs. Same; W. O. Wallace, vs. Same; R. C. Raines, vs. Same; Roscoe Wilson, vs. Same; Ezra Crowder, vs. Same; J. C. Edmons, vs. Same; J. M. Taylor, vs. Same; Leo Martin, vs. Same; N. L. Austin, vs. Same.

Twelve additional suits will probably be filed today or tomorrow.

(Special)
The home of Birch Martin near Central Grove church has witnessed some sad scenes caused by flu. One member of each family was called to rest, there being but 2 days difference in the dates of the deaths.

Birch Martin, one of those who passed away, is survived by an aged mother, a wife and three children, two brothers, Eugene Martin, of Hitchcock, South Dakota, and Crit Martin, of Beaver Dam, Ky., and one sister, Mrs. Pearl Sandefur, of Owensesboro.

Mrs. Ida Martin Tichenor leaves a husband and three little daughters, one of which is very low with the same disease. The mother of the two deceased is also very low of flu.

Mr. Albert Cox passed through here, Monday, enroute to Lawrenceburg, Ky., where he will meet his brother, who lives in Kansas. This will be both a business and a pleasure trip.

WHO SAID EGGS?

Hartford has long been considered an egg market of no small consequence, but that business is still booming is shown by the fact that W. E. Ellis & Bro. paid out over $400.00 for eggs last Saturday just in the general run of business, and there are a number of other produce men in town who were busy at the egg counter the same day.

Application for private pass way through farms of Messrs. Herbert, Emmett and W. P. Render, was made by Mr. Sam Williams in County Court here, Friday. It was decided that County Judge Cook should go in person to the farms and investigate whether or not the pass way is necessary and so make his decision.

Among the organizations interested are: Ohio County Farm Bureau, Parent Teachers' Association, Red Cross, etc. If a suitable building is secured, it will be made headquarters for these organizations and will also contain the Ladies' rest room. At this meeting, the business men will discuss the proposition of having a Commercial Club here.

Citizens' Get-Together Mass Meeting Scheduled Hartford Thursday Night

Thursday night, April 1, the citizens of Hartford will meet in mass convention at the court house for the purpose of discussing the proposition of securing a Community House here, and other needs of the city. There are a number of organizations here working for the public welfare and the plan is to secure a building that will accommodate them all and thus concentrate their efforts.

Among the organizations interested are: Ohio County Farm Bureau, Parent Teachers' Association, Red Cross, etc. If a suitable building is secured, it will be made headquarters for these organizations and will also contain the Ladies' rest room. At this meeting, the business men will discuss the proposition of having a Commercial Club here.

TORNADO SWEEPS SOUTH AND MIDDLE WEST

Death Toll Reaches Hundreds;
Property Loss Runs Into Millions

Chicago, March 28.—With wire communication gradually being restored with the various sections of the Middle West States, which were swept by the tornado Monday, the known dead, at noon Tuesday, was placed at ninety-three. Late reports from Ohio indicated twenty-six lives were lost, while Indiana reported twenty-seven and Michigan nine. Wisconsin and Missouri each reported one person killed.

Thousands were rendered homeless, and millions of dollars worth of damage done.

Chicago and its suburbs show the greatest toll of life, twenty-nine persons being killed, with the greatest loss at Melrose Park.

A portion of the known death list follows:

West Liberty, Ind., 7; Fenton, Mich., 7; Zulu, Ind., 5; Nashville, Ind., 4; Greensville, O., 4; Geneva, Ind., 3, and 1 each at Monroeville, Ind., Towney, Ind., Hart, Mich., East Troy, Wis., and St. Louis, Mo.

$4,000,000 Damage in Elgin

Elgin, Ill., thirty miles west of Chicago, where eight persons were killed, suffered approximately $4,000,000 damage when the tornado wrecked a large portion of the business quarter and part of the residence section.

Military law was declared in Elgin and former service men volunteered to preserve order and prevent looting.

From Elgin the tornado swept northeastward around Chicago, smashing through Melrose Park, Evanston, Wilmette and other suburbs with a trail of wreckage and death. In Melrose Park and Wilmette fire further added to the havoc.

The twisters which swept through Michigan and Ohio and Indiana apparently were distinct from the Illinois storm.

In each instance, however, it was the same tale—wrecked houses, prostration of wire communication and a death list.

In Ohio and Indiana, the tornado's fury apparently was wrecked on rural districts. None of the large cities was hit, according to reports.

Residents and detachments of infantry are working today in clearing the vast amount of wreckage in Chicago suburbs. Nurses from the Municipal Tuberculosis Sanitarium who worked all night were relieved today by a detachment of infantry medical corps men. Soldiers also relieved firemen who worked throughout the night.

The suburbs are practically under military law. Soldiers are guarding the Citizens' National Bank of Melrose Park, in which all the windows were broken and the roof carried away. Colonel Stuart, in charge of the troops, has issued orders to "shoot to kill" if looting is attempted.

While crossing some back water on their return from Dukehurst, Saturday, March 20, Misses Georgia and Ella Smith and brother, Leonas Smith, of the Clear Run vicinity, narrowly escaped drowning when their boat was overturned by the current.

They were forced to struggle through the swift water for a distance of 50 or 75 yards. The boat, a suit case filled with clothes, and $40.00 in money were carried away, but since the water has receded, these have been recovered. Several articles of clothing were badly damaged.

TOBACCO CHUTE AT MAYFIELD BURNED BY MOB

Building Saturated With Coal Oil Before Match is Applied

Mayfield, Ky., March 29.—Between 200 and 300 men, believed to be tobacco growers from the northern section of Graves County, rode into Mayfield at 1 o'clock Saturday morning and applied the torch to the tobacco chute, where all loose leaf tobacco brought into this market is sold.

This is the first outbreak of the sort since the Night Rider troubles thirteen years ago. It is the latest phase of the tobacco war in this district, where growers have banded together to resist falling prices by refusing to sell their crops.

The tobacco chute here was built two years ago, and while its value is only about $3,000, it was the only market of its sort in Graves County into which growers could drive their wagons of leaf to be sold direct to manufacturers' representatives. The long structure was destroyed by the flames.

CROWD WAS ORDERLY.

The work of the midnight visitors who burned up the tobacco chute was quiet and orderly and a woman living near the chute telephoned a fire alarm to the fire station at 1:00 o'clock. A portion of the chute shed is standing and it will be replaced and sales continued. Today tobacco is being sold in the street near the chute.

W. M. BROWN MADE DIRECTOR TRUTONA CO.

Announcement is made by the New Trutona Medicine Company of Louisville that W. M. Brown, a prominent and wealthy farmer of Rochester, Kentucky, who is well known in Hartford and throughout Ohio County has been made a member of the Board of Directors of the Company.

Mr. Brown, who is one of the leading farmers and financiers of the Green River section, has taken a liberal block of the stock of this rapidly growing enterprise, and in the future will lend his active as well as his financial support to the Company.

This election of Mr. Brown to represent the interests of the New Trutona Medicine Co., in this section of the country is a wise one, inasmuch as he is admirably qualified for the work.

A NARROW ESCAPE

While crossing some back water on their return from Dukehurst, Saturday, March 20, Misses Georgia and Ella Smith and brother, Leonas Smith, of the Clear Run vicinity, narrowly escaped drowning when their boat was overturned by the current. They were forced to struggle through the swift water for a distance of 50 or 75 yards. GROCER GIVES ADVICE TO LADY WHO GETS HELP

"It Sure Did Wonders For Me,"

Mrs. Huth Gratefully

Declares

Louisville, Ky., March 30.—If one is in trouble there are several ways in which to get relief. Of course one thing to do is to see a good physician get his advice and then, after you have it, follow it. Many people do not have the confidence in doctors to enable them to benefit by their advice and feel that some of the old-fashioned remedies our grandmothers used to use are the best. Here is a story of a lady whose grocer acted as her physician. Read what good results she had after she had taken his advice and tried Trutona, and after many other methods had failed.

"Two years ago," says Mrs. Anna Catherine Huth of 1512 South Preston Street, Louisville, well known and highly respected in her neighborhood. I became afflicted with kidney trouble. I tried most everything under the sun and even took treatment under the doctor for a long time. My back ached almost continually and I had about given up hopes of ever being well again.

"Well, one day I was talking to my grocer and he persuaded me to get a bottle of Trutona and try it. I tried most everything under the sun and even took treatment under the doctor for a long time. My back ached almost continually and I had about given up hopes of ever being well again.

WHY DO CITIES DRAW THE YOUNG PEOPLE OF OHIO COUNTY?

That there is a great lack of proper recreation for the people, old and young, in Ohio County, is shown by the community study made in twelve precincts of the county. To the question asked, "How do children, young people and adults spend their leisure time?" following are some of the answers: 1. Idleness, playing cards, etc. 2. Children in mischief, young men and adult men play cards and occasionally the young men play base ball." 3. "Majority in idleness." 4. "Loafing on streets, playing ball etc." 5. "The children play various games unsupervised; most attend the picture shows and auto ride."

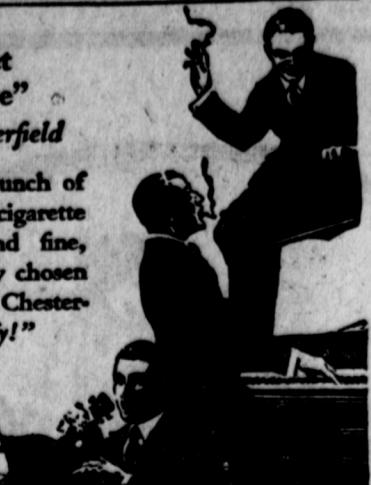

To the question, "How many of the following organizations are there: Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Girl Scouts, Y. M. C. A., and Y. W. C. A." all the answers were "None."

The questionnaire showed that there is no special recreation for women.

In general the recreation of the county takes the form of ice cream suppers, barbecues, "old time parties," and community singing. These forms of recreation are commendable and we wish there were more of them, especially the community singing. There was also a very valuable and enjoyable Farmers' Chautauqua at Beaver Dam last summer.

One of the big reasons why the cities draw the young people from the country districts is the recreational opportunities of the cities in contrast to the dearth of play in the country. The people of moderate means go off to the cities or on vacations frequently but the man and his family oft in the country who lack funds are deprived of this opportunity. We all know the saying, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." This applies to grown people as well as to children.

One Red Cross Chapter in the Lake Division, believing that recreation was one of the greatest needs of the people, put on a recreation program about nine months ago. The communities were organized. Good, clean picture shows, entertainments and lectures and community singing were given free of charge each week in the school buildings and churches of the country. Many people have been watching this experiment and already there is a big improvement in the community

GREETINGS AND FAREWELL.

An extract from the speech of Major L. M. Smith upon an amendment offered by him to fix a production tax upon coal.

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Senate:

It seems to me in view of the adverse attitude of the Republican Administration toward the passage of legislation looking to a proper and equitable tax on coal, that the Latin salutation is suitable upon this occasion. I, therefore, bid my Republican colleagues greetings and farewell—greetings to your imposing majority of 40,000, farewell to your Republican Administration four years hence.

The present session of the Legislature has been an orgy of taxation. Taxes have been levied from the cradle to the grave, from the old family arnica bottle to automobiles, from the rags of the junk man to the sumptuousness of the rich, taxes upon the products of the earth which are conspicuous by their absence in the coal producing section of Kentucky. Still old King Coal sits secure, insolent in the fastnesses of his native mountains, unscathed and untouched by taxation.

I see a host gathering in the table lands of the Bluegrass and in the Purchase, in the hamlets, in the cities—everywhere in old Kentucky where men love justice, equity and fair dealing a host that will four years hence rebuke the Republican Party for its untenable, unreasonable and unjust taxation upon all interests in Kentucky save the coal interests. Amid that host, I see 40,000 of the forward looking women of Kentucky, who love their state and would wrest her from the unavoidable position with reference to illiteracy, whose efforts and whose lofty ambitions and endeavors for the illiterates of the state have been rebuked. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been appropriated for the education of the youth of our land and yet not one dollar to strike the scales of intellectual blindness from thousands of our adult citizens, who are begging, not for a liberal education, but for enough to enable them to read the news of the day and in the evening when the curtains of night have been drawn to sit beside the family hearth and read to their little families from the Book of Books. Is it the fault of these adult illiterates that they have had to stumble more than half blind through life? Is it their fault that the State did not provide for them the advantages now provided for the youth of our land? From the humble cabins of the mountains, from the crowded tenements of the city, the answer comes, "NO". These unfortunate who have been denied the right to acquire sufficient education to enable them to read and to communicate their thoughts in writing to their friends and loved ones they may have far away, will be of that host already gathered for the purpose of defeating a conscienceless party and so, Mr. President and to you, the Republicans of the Senate, I say, "Greetings and Farewell."

Mrs. H. D. Loyd has been very ill for the past few days and her condition became such Thursday, that they took her to Owensboro City Hospital where she underwent a successful operation. Her condition is serious.

A Voice From Sioux City, Iowa, says

PE-RU-NA

Worth Its Weight In Gold

You cannot mistake the words of Mr. W. W. Northrup, of 908 Fourth Street, Sioux City, Iowa. He is enthusiastic about his present health and the merits of PE-RU-NA and wants everyone to know it. Here is a recent letter from him:

"PE-RU-NA is worth its weight in gold and then some. I used to think it only a woman's remedy but have changed my mind. I had a cough, especially in the morning. After using half a bottle of PE-RU-NA was much better. I would cough up chunks of phlegm and mucus, my eyes Itched and bothered me. Judging from the symptoms given in your almanac it was catarrh. My stomach is in much better condition since using your medicine."

"Use this testimonial, if you wish. Don't hesitate to advertise the merits of PE-RU-NA."

(Signed) W. W. NORTHRUP.

There are thousands just like Mr. Northrup, skeptical at first but convinced by a trial of PE-RU-NA.

DON'T BE AN UNBELIEVER.

If your trouble is of a catarrhal nature, try PE-RU-NA, then tell your friends. It is fine after an attack of grip or Spanish Flu.

Bank Of Woodburn, Near Bowling Green, Entered And Safe Blown

Louisville, Ky., March 20.—Police are keeping watch on the Dixie Highway for four men in a Cadillac car, who are suspected of having robbed the Bank of Woodburn, at Woodburn, fifteen miles south of Bowling Green, March 16.

Automobiles of all suspicious-looking persons will be stopped and their occupants questioned.

The cashier of the bank phones here that the vault was blown open and about $1,500 in Liberty bonds and war savings stamps stolen from safety deposit boxes of customers of the bank. He said that the yeggmen failed to open the door of the safe, but obtained $160 from the cashier's till.

The message from the cashier was received by Harry Smith, secretary of the Kentucky Bankers' association.

Like Other Jobs in State

The robbery at Woodburn so closely resembles the work of the safecollectors who operated at banks at Taylorsville, Shepherdsville, Jefferson, and other Kentucky towns, that it appears certain one organized gang is responsible for all of them.

The fact that the men suspected used a high-powered automobile strengthens this belief, as the noise of high-powered cars, leaving towns which had been robbed was heard at a number.

At the Bank of Woodburn a hole was drilled in the vault combination, and it was blown open with nitroglycerin.

Yeggmen have operated at seven Kentucky banks since January 1. They follow:

Deposit Bank, Eminence.

Bank of New Haven, New Haven.

First National Bank, Adairville.

Crab Orchard Banking Company.

Crab Orchard.

Peoples' Bank, Taylorsville.

Citizens' Bank, Burgin.

"SMELLING COMMITTEES"

"Smelling Committees" was what National Chairman Homer S. Cummings called the 92 Committees which a Republican Congress has created to investigate various phases of the conduct of the great world war. His characterization does not miss the mark.

Never was there revealed such a deliberate purpose upon the part of a great party to discredit its own country. These committees are now engaged in snooping around the Capital hunting for some thread of evidence upon which to base a charge of incompetency or graft against the Democratic Administration. They are using the microscope to discover a defect, while the naked eye can only see a glorious whole.

The Republicans know that the war was won under a Democratic Administration. They know that under a Democratic Secretary of War 4,000,000 Americans were called to the colors in eighteen months, and two million of them sent overseas.

They know that under a Democratic Secretary of Navy our boys were sent across a submarine-infested sea without loss of life. They know that the financial resources of the country stood the shock of war because of a Federal Reserve law, passed by a Democratic Congress, approved by a Democratic President and administered by a Democratic Treasury Department.

They know America's proud place which she has won before the nations of the world, and for narrow contemptible partisan purposes they are attempting now to besmirch that glorious record.

We know something of the temper of the people and we know they will resent such a course. They do not want two millions of their money collected in taxes—for that is what these partisan investigations have cost to date spent to dim the glory of America's war achievements, and they will rebuke the party that has set out upon such a plan.

LEGION WORKS FOR AMERICA

Comradeship Principles Guide

ORGANIZED ONE YEAR AGO

OBJECTS OF THE AMERICAN LEGION

"For God and country we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a 100 per cent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the Great War; to incite a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness."—Preamble to the Constitution of the Legion.

Just a year ago the American Legion was born. It crept out of cootie-laden billets in France without name or purpose, other than a determination to have an organization that would stand for America and the unselfish principles of American Democracy.

No one knows where the thought originated. It was spontaneous. The demand that came from officers and men resulted in a joint assemblage at Paris from March 15 to March 17, 1919. Rank was thrown aside; privates argued with colonels; comradeship entered in, and the manhood of America displayed in this first caucus that the army of the United States had a militant soul and conscience as well as a disciplined and conquering body.

The Republicans know that the war was won under a Democratic Administration. They know that under a Democratic Secretary of War 4,000,000 Americans were called to the colors in eighteen months, and two million of them sent overseas.

They know that under a Democratic Secretary of Navy our boys were sent across a submarine-infested sea without loss of life.

They know that the financial resources of the country stood the shock of war because of a Federal Reserve law, passed by a Democratic Congress, approved by a Democratic President and administered by a Democratic Treasury Department.

contemptible partisan purposes they are attempting now to besmirch that glorious record.

We know something of the temper of the people and we know they will resent such a course. They do not want two millions of their money collected in taxes—for that is what these partisan investigations have cost to date spent to dim the glory of America's war achievements, and they will rebuke the party that has set out upon such a plan.

MACHINE-MADE NOMINEES

The Louisville Herald, speaking, we presume, with authority, said a few days ago that "Republican leaders throughout the State are seeking arrangements whereby only one candidate for Congress will be brought out in each District."

The Herald goes on to give the details of these "arrangements" which the Republican bosses in Kentucky are making. In the First District the "harmony program has already been agreed upon" and "The entire party organization is to get behind one candidate." In the Fourth District, all possible entries are to be side-tracked for Judge Haswell, who is the bosses' selection. In the Sixth District, the leaders are endeavoring to unite on some strong candidate to oppose Congressman Rouse.

In the Ninth the way is not so easy, but, according to the Herald, it may be cleared up" and only one candidate aspire to the Republican nomination.

Finally, the United States Senatorship must be disposed of. There are at least a half dozen prominent Republicans who would like to become candidates for that nomination men like Gov. Wilson and Judge Kerr and Judge Bethurum but as the crowning achievement of this "harmony" scheme "some leaders" predict according to the Herald "that there will be only one starter in the United States Senatorial Derby this fall."

In days gone by the great mass of the voters, even in the Republican party, were supposed to have some little voice in naming their party nominees for high offices, but not so in Kentucky under the reign of A. T. Hert. The idea of the average voters having intelligence, patriotism enough to take part in nominating the United States Senate is repugnant to the leaders" who are to be entrusted with this work, and when matters reach the stage where the people can pass upon their nominees, the "leaders" will have only one candidate for them to consider. All others are to be warned off the grass.

The people of Kentucky may like this sort of boss rule, but we do not believe it. They may want an organization, more arrogant and proscriptive than any organization ever known in Kentucky, to make their nominations months in advance, and without consulting them, but we believe they prefer to do it themselves.

NEWS CULLINGS From Kentucky

Danville.—In a report just issued, 8,756,920 was the figure named for the number of pounds of tobacco that was sold in the Danville market this season. The market has just closed.

Mt. Sterling.—James Q. Stephens, aged 89 years, died here of the infirmities of age. He was one of a family of 27 children and was the father of 11 children, leaving 28 grandchildren, and 13 great-grandchildren.

Owingsville.—Leford Ingman and Will Pondo, Menifee county boys, recently bought a small tract of land for $500. The land turned out to be in the Menifee oil region and they sold the oil rights on the land a day or two ago for $12,000.

Lexington.—Printing pressmen here who recently organized the Lexington Printing Pressmen and Assistants Union, declared a strike for an increase in wages and the closed shop. The increase asked ranges from 25 to 50 per cent, from foremen to press feeders. Three large job plants closed down and others may be affected.

Whitesburg.—An L. & N. passenger train bound for Louisville ran into a slip in the south end of a tunnel near Whitesburg, and a wreck was narrowly averted. Windows were smashed and steps broken. The engine was also thrown off the track. A near panic was created by passengers on the train. Traffic was delayed for several hours.

Columbia.—Mrs. Susan Wilson, probably the largest woman in this section of Kentucky, died in the Milltown section of Adair county. Her weight is said to have been 500 pounds. No coffin could be found in Columbia large enough to receive her body, so a local undertaker was employed to make one, which is said to have been as large as a spring-wagon bed.

Frankfort.—A home for a mother, deserted during the war, and compelled to work in a local factory to support her two children, represents one phase of the activity of the local Red Cross Chapter. A cash payment of $1,000 is from delayed family settlement and allowance from October 1918, when the runaway husband was drafted into the service.

La Grange.—The large farm of Newton Button, deceased, was sold to set the estate, he leaving three children, Albert and Robert Button and Mrs. Charles Lancaster. The farm contained over 400 acres and was bid in by the two sons at $75 per acre. It has two houses on it, the sons having lived there for some years. It is a good farm and well watered, with much creek bottom land.

Frankfort.—A. W. Overton, 75 years old, for many years teller at Farmers' Deposit Bank, died as result of burns caused by his clothing catching fire from a gas stove in his bedroom. Mr. Overton, when 16 years old, was one of the students at the Virginia Military Institute who joined the Confederate forces in the battle at New Market. He distinguished himself in the war and was awarded a medal.

Louisville.—George A. Francke, formerly of Louisville, who died on an army transport returning to the United States March 1, 1919, under the name of Ralph K. Warington, left an estate between $30,000 and $10,000, it became known when his Sister, Mrs. Blanche Shelley, was appointed administrator. A brother, Louis H. Francke, also shares in the estate. It is known Francke had holdings in the Philippines.

Paducah.—Curtailment of the 1920 tobacco crop was favored in resolutions adopted at a meeting of planters of the dark tobacco district here. The purpose of the farmers' meeting was the discussion of the present market situation. Between forty and fifty delegates from five counties of the district were represented. Delegates were present from McCracken, Marshall, Graves, Ballard and Carlisle counties.

Flemingsburg.—The preliminary examination of Richard Stanfield for the fatal shooting of William Stickrod, was held before Judge Fulton, who fixed his bond at $1,000, which he gave and was released. Mr. Stanfield is 78 years of age and a tenant on the Stickrod farm. Stanfield and Mr. Stickrod got into a dispute which resulted in the latter being killed. Mr. Stanfield stated that he did not intend to injure him.

Lexington.—Suffering from concussion of the brain, John Chapman, a farmer, living on Tate's Creek pike, ten miles from Lexington, was brought to the hospital here in a serious condition. He was struck on the head by a falling tree, which he was chopping down, and lay unconscious for several hours before found.

Stanford.—A telegram just received by relatives here states that Truchart Borne, of this place, a major in the army, was killed in an auto accident at Chipley, Fla.

Mt. Sterling.—The Burley tobacco market here is closed. The sales this season have not been satisfactory. Approximately 7,000,000 pounds have been sold at the three warehouses, averaging $31 per hundred.

Louisville.—The Baptists hope to begin work this spring on the hospital they will erect on the site on Barret avenue they bought some time ago. It is estimated that the cost of the first building will be $300,000 or more.

Lexington.—A meeting of the State Racing Commission will likely be called within the next ten days or two weeks to decide on dates for the spring meetings, it was stated by Secretary Pete Stoll. The definite date for calling the meeting has not yet been decided upon, as two of the members are out of the city.

Frankfort.—The sale of 116,650 acres of Clark county land for $146,07 in taxes was recalled by an extract from old records made by the Franklin County Clerk for current litigation. The sale was made December 6, 1815, to John Wilson, of Pennsylvania, on the failure of Thomas Franklin to pay his taxes. The tract begins at the intersection of the North and Middle forks of the Kentucky river.

Louisville.—Roundup and prosecution of Kentucky's 1,334 deserters and 2,469 delinquents in the draft during the war will be undertaken jointly by the War Department and Kentucky legions, if the War Department accepts the offer of the legion's State Executive Committee, which tendered its services for this work. Names will be made public in a few days through newspapers and the roundup will follow.

La Grange.—The Board of Tax Supervisors, composed of R. L. Ireland, James Fox, Ed Mason, J. S. Clifton, J. W. Swinney, T. T. Anderson, L. O. Crum, Frank Gottbrath and Latt Bennett, is in session at the courthouse to raise the valuation of citizens' property $120,000, as ordered by the State Board. All property holders whose taxes will be raised will be given a chance to appear before the board and say why the raise should not be.

Frankfort.—A home for a mother, deserted during the war, and compelled to work in a local factory to support her two children, represents one phase of the activity of the local Red Cross Chapter. A cash payment of $1,000 is from delayed family settlement and allowance from October 1918, when the runaway husband was drafted into the service.

Harrodsburg.—After scouring the country for five hours a posse, composed of wood cutters in the west end of Mercer county, apprehended a man, giving the name of Louis Langdon, of Little Washington, Pa., who is accused of having threatened to kill Mrs. Wesley Davis, 70, unless she gave him money. The man is described as a giant in stature, and about 40 years old. He was roughly dressed, and told arresting officers he had come to Kentucky to get a place as wood cutter.

Louisville.—The forty-fourth weekly bulletin of the United States Grain Corporation shows 178,171,000 bushels of wheat in all elevators and mills. This is 4,454,000 decrease over the previous week. For the week ending March 5, 2,135,000 barrels of flour was produced. The wheat receipts from the farms was 4,031,000 bushels, which is a decided decrease for the same period of last year. The report shows that from July 1, 1919, to March 5, 1920, 141,327,000 bushels of flour and wheat was exported.

London.—A jury in the Laurel Circuit Court awarded judgment against the L. & N. Railroad Company for $5,000 in favor of Beveridge Fairbanks Haverly, 16 years old, for injuries sustained while in the employ of the company at Corbin. Young Haverly was less than 15 when the accident occurred and was at work in a cinder pit in the Corbin yards when burning oil from an engine fell upon him and ignited his clothing, causing serious burns before other employees could extinguish the flames. He is the son of former State Representative G. W. Haverly, of Keeny, this county.

Paducah.—An unidentified negro burglar shot and seriously wounded John Clements, an employee of the Paducah Electric Company, in a revolver battle with police and civilians. The negro was discovered in Sloan Bros. grocery in the West End, and a battery of police surrounded the place. Clements, who accompanied the police, forced his way into the rear door and the burglar rushed past him, firing as he ran. He fired another shot after Clements had pitched forward into the snow outside the building. The ball entered Clements mouth and came out at the back of his neck. The negro escaped.

Hopkinsville.—A contract has been let to a Hopkinsville firm for the erection of a handsome and modern graded and high school building at Trenton, in Todd county, at $36,000. The additional items, including furniture, will cost several thousand dollars more. The funds available for the new building, arising through the regular school fund channels, were not sufficient for the letting of the contract, and twelve of the leading citizens of that town and surrounding section signed the contract as individuals.

Lexington.—Suffering from concussion of the brain, John Chapman, a farmer, living on Tate's Creek pike, ten miles from Lexington, was brought to the hospital here in a serious condition. He was struck on the head by a falling tree, which he was chopping down, and lay unconscious for several hours before found.
